

Rules and Guidelines of the Bal du Bac

These are all standard procedures. Obeying these rules and regulations will ensure a safe night for everyone. If the following rules are not followed, entry will be denied, or you will be removed from the venue.

By participating in the event of the Bal du Bac you agree to follow the rules below:

If you, the participant, are under the age of 18 years old, your parent/guardian accepts full responsibility for your actions during the event and on the bus provided by the Bal du Bac Committee returning to Brussels afterwards.

1. The participant understands that a photographer will be present at the event and may appear in pictures taken during the event. The organisers of the event may use these photos freely including, but not limited to, via social media.
2. Arriving drunk or under the influence of drugs at the event will give the guards and organisers the right to deny you entry.
3. The participant is responsible for any damages or harm caused to the venue, the bus supplied by the Bal du Bac Committee returning to Brussels after the event, or other participants and will be expected to make amends, potentially in the form of payment to the owners of the venue or the bus company, or any other type of liability resulting from the damages caused and which are not covered by insurance.
4. The participants are required to bring the bracelet already given to them and their booking confirmation demonstrating the purchase of the tickets. No tickets will be sold at the entrance.
5. The participant agrees to respect a formal/chic dress code. If they are not dressed appropriately, they will be denied access to the venue with no reimbursement.
6. The participant agrees that overconsumption of alcohol or the consumption of illicit recreational drugs is their own responsibility as it may cause damage to themselves, other event attendees, the venue itself, or the bus afterwards for which they hereby declare their readiness to refund and/or repair any damage caused. The participant is also aware that the party can be shut down in advance if the Bal du Bac Rules are disrespected.
7. The participant agrees not to behave inappropriately (excessive drinking, violent behaviour) otherwise Security will exclude them from the event or the bus afterwards.
8. The organisers (and the Bal du Bac Committee itself) can in no way be held accountable for any of the participants' lost or stolen items during the event or on the bus afterwards.
